Environmental determinants of health in Africa

8 things Africa needs to survive

needs that must be met to fulfill the Libreville Declaration

- 1. Advocacy
- 2. Policy
- 3. Regulations and legislation
- 4. Intersectoral coordination
- 5. Institution building
- 6. Human resources
- 7. Financial resources
- 8. Research

What can we do about it?

In 2008, African Ministers of Health and the Environment developed and signed a shared African response, the Libreville Declaration, with the following 11 action points:

Develop/ establish a strategic alliance for environment and health

2. Develop/ update national frameworks

3. Integrate objectives in national poverty reduction strategies

Establish/ strengthen health and environment institutions

5. Support knowledge acquisition and management

6. Establish/ Implement mechanisms for strengthen systems for environmental enforcing international surveillance conventions and

-

V: Set up national monitoring and evaluation mechanisms national regulations

9. Systematic assessment of health and environment risks

11. Achieve a balance in budgetary resource allocation for priority programmes

10.

Develop

partnerships for targeted advocacy