REGIONAL COMMITTEE FOR AFRICA

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

Seventy-fourth session

Brazzaville, Republic of Congo, 26–30 August 2024

INFORMATION BULLETIN

TRAVEL AND STAY IN BRAZZAVILLE

ENTRY VISA

- An entry visa to the Republic of Congo is mandatory, except for nationals of Member States of the Economic Community of Central African States (CEMAC). Visas can be obtained at the Embassy or Consulate of the Republic of Congo in your country of nationality or residence.
- If there is no diplomatic representation of the Republic of Congo in your country, an authorization of entry into the Republic of Congo must be obtained from the Congolese authorities at least 10 (ten) days prior to arrival via the WHO Regional Office for Africa, by providing a copy of your passport and indicating your country of departure and flight details. A support letter will be made available to participants to facilitate the issuance of the visa on arrival.
- In this case, the visa will be issued to you upon arrival at the Brazzaville International Airport (Maya-Maya) or the Autonomous Port (Beach) after payment of CFAF 20 000, or €35 or US$ 50.
- Nationals of CEMAC Member States do not require an entry visa; they are only required to have a valid passport.
- Nationals of Benin, Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire, Mauritania, Morocco, Niger, Senegal and Togo may obtain their visas on arrival.
- Holders of diplomatic passports and the United Nations Laissez-Passer will be issued a visa on arrival free of charge.

Immigration formalities

On arrival, you will be received by members of the Organizing Committee, who will provide you with the necessary assistance.

Handling of luggage on arrival

You are requested to keep your luggage tags and present them at the exit to the customs officials. You can entrust the withdrawal and transfer of your luggage to uniformed porters with the assistance of the WHO AFRO team.

GETTING THERE – VENUE AND TRANSPORT

The Seventy-fourth session of the Regional Committee for Africa will be held at the Tours Jumelles in Brazzaville, Congo. Please, note that the Opening Ceremony will be held at the Palais des Congrès.

The Organizing Committee will arrange for the transfer of participants from Maya Maya International Airport to their hotels and back to the airport upon their departure.

The Organizing Committee will also arrange for the transfer of participants from the hotels listed in the Annex to the meeting venue every morning and back to the hotels at the end of the daily sessions. The Organizers will not provide transport during lunch breaks, as all lunch will be provided at the meeting venue.

HOTEL RECOMMENDATIONS

The list of hotels recommended for the Seventy-fourth session of the Regional Committee is annexed to this information bulletin. It is highly recommended that you make your booking in one of these hotels in order to benefit from the shuttle service that will be put in place by the organizers between the recommended hotels and the meeting venue.

Participants are requested to make their own hotel bookings directly with the recommended hotels. To make a booking with the hotel, please refer to the Annex, where you will find the room rates and contact addresses of each hotel.

REGISTRATION AND BADGES

All information pertaining to confirmation of participation, including flight details, requirements for obtaining the Congolese entry visa and hotel bookings should be communicated through the online registration platform at <http://indico.un.org/e/RC74>.

Should you need assistance, please contact the nearest WHO country office or send an email to AFRGO/RC Registration at GoverningBodiesAfro@who.int. Participants will be required to register online and obtain identification badges prior to the opening of the Regional Committee session. For identification and security purposes, the official badge should be worn by all participants at all times during the Regional Committee session and at official social functions.

Badges will be available at the Tours Jumelles and before the Opening Ceremony at the Palais des Congrès.

VACCINATION AND HEALTH INFORMATION

Yellow fever vaccination is mandatory. Check the validity of your health certificate and update if necessary. You are required to present your vaccination certificate to health workers upon arrival.

Vaccination against typhoid fever, hepatitis A and B virus, meningitis, tetanus and poliomyelitis is advised.

With regard to malaria, Congo is classified in zone C, mainly owing to the presence of plasmodium falciparum. The risk of contracting malaria especially from plasmodium falciparum exists all year round. Antimalaria prophylaxis appropriate for each individual is recommended before your departure, and until two weeks after your return. The use of other individual protection measures such as sprays, creams, electric mosquito killers and mosquito nets is recommended.

The Clinic of the Regional Office for Africa, in collaboration with the Ministry of Health (MoH) Congo, will be operating mobile clinics at the conference venue, equipped to handle a range of medical emergencies. The clinics will be open during all conference hours and also provide 24/7 support for emergencies.

It is compulsory for all delegates to obtain and maintain adequate international medical insurance coverage including repatriation evacuation under their national, institutional, or private health insurance schemes.

BANK AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE

An automatic teller machine (ATM) is available at the Tours Jumelles accepting Visa cards. It is accessible 24/7. Other ATMs operated by some banks in the city centre also operate on a 24-hour basis.

SECURITY

All UN staff require security clearance before travelling to the Republic of Congo. To obtain a security clearance, a request is submitted through the web site <https://dss.un.org>.

Visitors must take reasonable security measures to guard against theft or fraudulent practices, including requests for financial assistance and bad faith offers of goods and services. Caution and common sense should guide your actions at all times, whether in the hotel, on the street, in a taxi or just on the phone.

In case of emergency, call the following telephone number: +242 06 508 1087 WhatsApp.

CLIMATE

The Republic of Congo has a tropical climate. The average temperature in August is about 24°C, and the average rainfall is very low. The relative humidity is 70%.

Seasons:	Average temperature
February – March: Short dry season	 25° C
April – May: Short rainy season	  25° C
June – September: Long dry season	 23° C
October – January: Long rainy season	  25° C

LANGUAGES

French is the official language of the Republic of Congo. The two local languages most commonly spoken are Lingala (in Brazzaville and the north of the country) and Kitouba (in Pointe-Noire and the south).

ELECTRICITY

The recommended voltage for electrical appliances is: 220 volts–230 volts, 50 AC.

CUISINE

Congolese cuisine is quite varied. The popular national dishes served in restaurants include:

- Saka-saka: Pounded cassava leaves, seasoned and prepared with groundnut paste or palm oil and served with rice.
- Chicken à la Mouambe (Mossaka): Chicken cooked or roasted in groundnut paste or thick palm oil sauce and served with rice or pounded plantain.
- Maboke: Freshwater fish, boiled in spices, piri-piri (a variety of chilli) and other seasoning, wrapped in leaves.
- Grilled piri-piri chicken (or barbecued).
- Mutton stew in groundnut sauce.
- Cabbage palm salad.
- Asparagus spears.
- Smoked fish (moukalou): eaten as stock/bouillon or with koko (thinly sliced leaves) and groundnut paste (same as with salted fish).
